

Ivy School of Professional Art

The 3rd Annual
IVY REUNION
 August 21, 2010
 @Jozart Studios,
 California, PA
 3:00 PM ~ 11:00 PM

IVY LIVES!

Do you remember the smell of AD markers, cleaning Koh-I-Noor rapidograph pens, tearing out sheets from Ad Graphics layout pads, squirting Liquitex paints onto your palette and sitting at the famous "Pipe Table?" If any of these ring a bell, then you may also recall the time you spent attending the Ivy School of Professional Art. Of course, you may only remember hanging out in Market Square or inside of Jimmy Miller's bar. Either way, why not attend the next "Ivy Reunion" and relive these moments from yesterday?!

This year's reunion will be held at Jozart Studios in California, PA. Now for those of you who are still living in the Pittsburgh area, and think this may be too long of a drive to attend this reunion... think again. Joe (Bishop) Morosky's studio is a very easy drive and only 50 minutes from downtown Pittsburgh. If you think back to when we went to Ivy, it almost took this long to get to school for many of us. Plus Joe is offering his place "FREE OF CHARGE!!!" So the cost to attend this reunion will be very reasonable!

If you're thinking of tossing this letter aside and not attending this reunion... please continue reading. Not only will there be Ivy memorabilia on display, but there will also be good food, drinks, lots of prizes and many old faces you haven't seen for a very long time. If for some reason you're no longer in the art field — who cares. This reunion is not to see what you've made of yourself since Ivy, it's to bring together those who shared a brief part of your life as you were approaching the next stage of your life!

For those of you who will be traveling a long distance or would like to spend the night at Joe's place, he can easily accommodate you with your needs. Joe's place is huge, with lots of free parking in the area.

So take a trip back in time when we all wore funkier clothes, partied much harder than we can now, stayed up into the wee hours of the morning to complete our homework assignments and ate that delicious vending machine food found in the cafeteria. Of course, there will be a much better spread at the reunion than you would ever hope to find at Ivy.

IVY LIVES!

JOZART STUDIOS

Jozart Studio is a terrific place on it's own. Holding the reunion at this venue will not only make for an interesting and fun evening, but very affordable too! So make plans for August 21, 2010 to attend the next Ivy reunion! We may have gotten a bit slower and older, but our memories of those days at Ivy will live on forever! Come join us to celebrate one of the most unique schools in the country, and we can guarantee you'll leave with a smile on your face and new memories of Ivy!
